A Special Thanks

The marriage ceremony is an occasion of solemn joy. In the presence of relatives and friends we pledge our love and faithfulness to each other, seeking God's seal of blessing on our covenant.

First we thank you for witnessing our union. We also ask that you pray that God will bless our marriage and enrich our lives together with the gift of love, joy and peace.

It is only proper for us to express our appreciation to you for witnessing the vows we made before the living God, for joining us in our reception celebration and for anything and everything you have done to make this one of the happiest and greatest days of our lives.

Love,

Cassandra and Fred Richardson, Jr.
